MONTHLY REPORT SELECTMEN FIRE DEPARTMENT JANUARY 2017

- January 9th 2017 Janet Poitras started as the new Administrative Assistant to the Fire Department. Janet was previously employed by the Town of Shirley and has sixteen years of municipal experience. Janet is organizing the office and transitioning to the new job very quickly. Janet will be a great addition to our team.
- The fire department responded to two mutual aid structure fires in the month of January in the Towns of Groton and Littleton.
- There were two train derailments in Town in the month of January. Luckily no hazardous commodities were involved in either of the two incidents.
- The State Ambulance Inspector visited in January for the yearly inspection. The ambulance service is licensed through the State Department of Public Health. The inspection includes a thorough inspection of the vehicles, location and paperwork associated with the ambulance service and is conducted yearly. The inspection was positive with only very minor issues noted.
- Fire runs January - 57
- Ambulance Runs January- 115
- Ambulance revenue January - $25,312.96
- Permit receipts January -$1,440

Respectfully submitted:
