Ayer Shirley Youth Basketball

Code of Conduct

Participation in the Ayer Shirley Youth Basketball Program is considered a privilege for players, coaches and spectators. All three play a part in making the experience of youth basketball a positive experience for everyone to enjoy. Those who do not abide by the ethics detailed below during ASYB games will be asked to leave the building and may be subject to further consequences pending inquiry from the ASYB board.

Coaches' Code of Conduct:

- I will place the emotional and physical wellbeing of my players ahead of a personal desire to win.
- I will treat each player as an individual, and expect age appropriate skills from all my players.
- I will distribute playing time evenly among player on my team within the guidelines of ASYB rules.
- I will do my best to provide a safe playing situation for my players and players on the other team.
- I will lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all my players on and off the court.
- I will respect the decisions of referees.
- I will remember that I am a youth sports coach and that the game is for children and not adults.

Players' Code of Conduct:

- I will play within the rule and be adherent to the instructions of the referees and coaches.
- I will respect the decisions of referees and coaches.
- I will not intentionally try to inflict pain or injury to another player.
- I will exhibit good sportsmanship before, during, and after each game, regardless of the outcome.
- I will not partake in taunting, criticizing or jeering of opposing players or officials.

Spectators' Code of Conduct:

- I will not criticize, taunt or otherwise disrespect officials, players, or coaches from either team.
- I will offer only positive words of encouragement, preferably to both teams playing.
- I will not instruct players or coaches during games or practices.
- I will allow others around me to enjoy the game by not being overly boisterous or belligerent.

By signing below, you agree to abide by the Code of Conduct listed above and understand the privilege of participation in future ASYB events may be revoked for non-compliance. You further understand the importance of fair play and sportsmanship during youth sports competition and recognize the authority of referees and town coordinators to remove those who are exhibiting poor conduct during ASYB events.
