During the first week of February Lieutenant Gill attended the FBI's Law Enforcement Executive Development Seminar (LEEDS) held in Connecticut. This four day seminar covers a wide variety of topics, possibly the most important of which was a presentation from officials involved in the Newtown, CT school shooting incident.

During the week of the 18th Officer Jennifer Bigelow attended a basic School Resource Officer Certification training. As our current school liaison officer, this training will assist Officer Bigelow with her current duties.

On the 26th officers from Ayer and Shirley joined together to participate in a school safety drill (lockdown) at the high and Page Hilltop schools. The drills were our first in practicing new procedures
