On the 6th I attended a Chief's In-service training session to get updated on current events affecting communities, police departments, and chiefs. Of particular note were sections on public records, liability, and body worn cameras. Additionally other personnel in the Department attended trainings on police interaction with the mentally ill, bullying, verbal judo, law enforcement officer wellness and resiliency, and liquor laws and false identification.

At our monthly School Safety Team Meeting we focused on finalizing the District's Crisis Intervention & Response Guide. The guide will be put together over the summer and ready for the opening day of school in September.

May 2015 Monthly Report

On the 27th Officer Bigelow, with help from Officers Cunningham and Krasinskas, held our annual Bike Rodeo at the Page Hilltop School. The kids had a great time learning about bike safety and practicing their handling skills. At next year's event we will have a trained mechanic on hand to help with our inspections and provide minor repairs.
