Radio Follow-up: Contract negotiations have been successfully concluded. We have begun the RPF process and hope to see the beginnings of construction this fall.

This month I attended a meeting of the Ayer, Shirley, and Harvard Rotary. Special guest speaker for the night was Ayer District Court First Justice Margaret R. Guzman. The meeting was informative and well attended giving me the opportunity to interact with business leaders from all the communities.

SRO Jennifer Bigelow was honored this month during the Page Hilltop Community Meeting. Jen was awarded for her efforts as SRO and the role model she exemplifies to all the students.

June 2017 Monthly Report

On the 13th and 14th Lt. Gill, Officer Kularski and I cooked up burgers and dogs during Field Day at the Page Hilltop School. It is always a great time serving lunch to these young people and this event was no different.

On June 23 our newest officer, Christopher Lowney, graduated from the 7th State Police Municipal Police Academy. It was my honor to pin Chris's first ever police badge on him during the ceremony. I expect great things from this young, intelligent, and energetic young man. He will serve the town well!

Training classes attended this month by officers of the department, either collectively or individually, were in the areas of:

- First Responder/CPR
- Kidz in Motion
- Defensive Tactics
- Understanding Human Trafficking
- Homeland Security
- Opioid Overdose Response
- Stress, the Silent Killer
- Dispatchers and Domestic Violence

In total the Department spent 182 hours in training for the month.
