Radio Follow-up: Requests for bids should be going out in October with an award date expected in early November.

This month the Department, and Town, said goodbye to Officer Richard Krasinskas who resigned on the 30th. Officer Krasinskas is off to new adventures and we wish him well.

Planning for the upcoming train accident drill continued this month. Though the drill is primarily focused on the Fire Department there is a personnel safety and security component and a communication component that the PD will be testing and evaluating.
