MONTHLY REPORT SELECTMEN FIRE DEPARTMENT FEBRUARY 2019

- In the month of February interviews were held to fill the open Lieutenant's position with-in the Call Department. This position had been open since the retirement of Captain Steven Slarsky and the promotion of Richard Ressijac to Call Captain last year. There had been a six month period for candidates to prepare and gain some certifications required to hold the position. There were five applicants for the position and interviews were held on February 12th. As a result of the interview process Andrew Harland was promoted to Call Lieutenant. Two of the other candidates Steven Wright and Matthew Boutilier were promoted to Senior Firefighter. The Senior Firefighter position is, in the absence of and Officer, in charge of the station and can be in charge of fire apparatus responding to an emergency call.
- Twenty two animal crates and ten flashlights were purchased through a grant program from Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency. The animal crates will be used if the need arises to open an emergency shelter. The flashlights are to be used by the CERT Team.
- Ambulance calls February - 123
- Fire calls February - 62
- Ambulance receipts February - $ 33,214.77
- Permit receipts February - $815.00

Respectfully submitted;

Robert J. Pedrazzi
Fire Chief / Emergency Management Director
