Director's Report for March 2019

- Chuck returned to the Library on March 14th to install a new diaper changing table in one of the Library's public restrooms.

Library Director's Activities:

- Head of Children's Services Amy Leonard and I participated in Community Reader Day at Page Hilltop School on March 1st. With Dr. Seuss as the theme for the day, I read Fox in Sox to Mrs. Fitzgerald's kindergarten class. The kids were fantastic & Amy and I had a lot of fun!
- I attended two strategic planning workshops for libraries on March 6th. The workshops were presented by Massachusetts Library System (MLS) advisors at the MLS Office in Marlborough, MA.
- I attended the Nashoba Valley Chamber of Commerce's Taste of Nashoba Valley event on March 19th. The Library was a ticket sale partner for this year's event. We sold five tickets at the Circulation Desk, so the Friends of the Ayer Library will receive $25 from the Chamber.
- As a "busman's holiday" of sorts, I visited the Woburn Public Library on March 16th to attend the official re-opening of the newly renovated and expanded library building. Like Ayer, Woburn renovated their original 19th century building – designed by noted architect H. H. Richardson - but, in contrast, the new addition is a modern glass and steel structure. The new addition is designed in part to allow patrons to see much of the beautiful exterior of the historic building while sitting comfortably inside the expanded library. It's worth a trip to see!
- Circulation & Outreach Librarian Christina Zoller and I traveled to Ayer-Shirley Regional High School on March 21st to meet with APAC Executive Director Scott Kurland and Public Access Manager Dave Melpignano. We discussed ideas for video story time programming and then toured the school's wonderful TV studio and editing room.
- I sat in on the Youth Services Summer Reading planning meeting on March 20th that was hosted by Amy Leonard & Christina Zoller and attended by Kathleen Buretta, Hazen Memorial Library's Youth Services Librarian, and Ayer-Shirley elementary school teachers Diane Lyons and Nancy Pasquaretta. The group worked to update the school summer reading lists with newer book titles and discussed ways to make it easier and more enjoyable for Ayer-Shirley students and their families to participate in summer reading.
- I began meeting individually with the Library's four new part-time Library Clerks to check in with them after their first three months on the job.
- Pastor Susan Gaeta of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Ayer and I met over coffee on March 28th to get to know each other and to begin to talk about how our respective organizations might work together to meet the needs of the people in our community.
- I contacted several IT companies to request information and pricing for upgrading and/or providing better maintenance and support for the Library's public WiFi network, the internal staff computer network, and the public computer network.

Library Director's Meetings:

- Town of Ayer Finance Committee, March 7th
- Town of Ayer Department Director's Meeting, March 13th
- Ayer Library Department Heads Meeting, March 15th & 29th
- North Central Massachusetts Library Directors' Meeting, March 15th at Fitchburg Public Library
- C/WMARS Users' Council Quarterly Meeting, March 19th at West Springfield Public Library
- Ayer Library Board of Trustees Meeting, March 19th - Canceled due to lack of quorum.

- Amy Leonard led a project to expand and reorganize the board book collection in the Children's Room. With the help of Christina and Justine, we rearranged the furniture to allow for a second shelf for board books to be added. By moving the furniture we've also created a brighter and more welcoming space for our patrons and have received many compliments. The board book collection is still expanding to better serve patron needs, and the books are now sorted alphabetically to make them easier to patrons and staff to find.
- During the furniture moving process, we also put the play kitchen set back in storage and brought out the puppet theatre instead. This was a welcome change and the kids have been having a wonderful time putting on puppet shows for their families.
- The display for the months of March and April is a very exciting one. Christina's mother and grandmother loaned us their collections of vintage children's toys and books. These items, along with a few toys belonging to the library, donated by Carol Horgan for a previous display, have been excellent at encouraging friendly conversations between staff and patrons. Patrons of all ages have taken time to look at the items on display and admire them. We have received many compliments and questions about the display and have been encouraged to have it again.
