MONTHLY REPORT SELECTMEN FIRE DEPARTMENT AUGUST 2019

- August 6th through 9th the Chief attended Fire Rescue International held at the World Congress Center, Atlanta; GA. This is a conference hosted by the International Association of Fire Chiefs. Seminars are held on various fire and EMS related topics covering the four day event. Presenters are from various parts of the country giving a wide variety of views. The trade show is the largest in the country. This is a yearly conference held at different locations throughout the United States.
- The Fire Prevention Lieutenant's job is a three year bid position. The bidding for this position was due for the first of September. Lt. Robert Bozek successfully bid the position and will remain the Fire Prevention Lieutenant for the coming three years.
- After a month of advertising for Call Members through the various Town social media, including the sign board on the Fire Station. There were six applicants that were interviewed on August 15th. One applicant was going into the National Guard basic training in September. The other five were accepted and are currently going through the OSHA mandated physicals before being allowed to join the ranks. The hope is to have them starting initial training in September.
