Radio Follow-up: The radio project has been deemed substantially complete with only very minor, last minute tasks to complete. There has been a visible improvement to all systems thus improving the safety of all Public Safety personnel. The next step for the PD is to move to the P25 digital standard which is already in the works.

Training classes that personnel attended during August, either collectively or individually, were in the areas of:

National Association of Women in Law Enforcement Conference

CPR Instructor

Powerphone EMD

DCJIS Recert

Child Passenger Safety Installer

Powerphone EMD Administrator

In total the Department spent 140 hours in training for the month.
