In personnel news, Recruit Officers Jake Minear and Alexia Surprenant started at the Fitchburg State University Academy on May 6th, with an anticipated graduation date in early September. Jake is a 2018 graduate of the Ayer Shirley Regional High School and Alexia is a 2018 graduate of Dracut High School. They were both interns from Fitchburg State University, where they received bachelor degrees in Criminal Justice and both are working toward their master's degree.

May 2022 Monthly Report

On May 20th we received exciting news that the Ayer PD was being favorably presented to the Massachusetts Police Accreditation Commission to receive the status of accreditation at their next general meeting in June. This was great news to hear and we hope to have the final decision by the next monthly report.
