In personnel news, Recruit Officers Jake Minear and Alexia Surprenant graduated from the Fitchburg State University Academy on September 9th, and have begun their 11-week field training program back at the PD. Once they are completed with training evolution, they will be assigned a shift and out on patrol.

The Ayer Police Department started a new initiative with the COA: "Cribbage with a Cop". Once a month, members from the PD will go over to the COA just before lunch and play cribbage. This has been a great way to stay connected with the population of folks that use the COA and often have questions for the police.

Complaints against Employees:
