In personnel news, Recruit Officer Jared Splaine started the Randolph Academy on May 22, 2023 and reports from the Academy Director is that he is doing very well.

Also, June saw the resignation of Officer Michael Bourisk, who has been with us for approx. 2 years. We will be looking to the existing candidate pool to fill the vacancy.

We will be interviewing approx. eight applicants for the three open Patrol Officer positions on July 13 and 14. The Deputy Chief will be leading a team to conduct the interviews.

We will be closing the application process for the open Dispatcher position on July 7th and will be moving expeditiously to identify a candidate.

Training officers attended during the month, were in the areas of:

- Police In-service Training (Completed)
- Dispatch In-Service Training (Completed)
- New Detective Training
- Mental Health 1st Responder
- ECW Refresher
- Roll Call Training Situational Awareness
- Roll Call Training (On Going) Internal Cyber Security

In Total, the Department spent 233 hours in training for the month.
