Conservation Commission—Tree Removal Policy

The Ayer Conservation Commission would like to remind homeowners that any tree removal within the 100-foot buffer zone from a wetland (including ponds) or 200-foot buffer zone from a river must be reviewed by the Conservation Agent for approval. Trees and other vegetation play an important role in protecting our water bodies and keeping our properties cool in the summer and warmer in the winter.

The Conservation Commission developed a Tree Removal Policy at the end of 2022 which outlines the guidelines for residents that wish to have a tree removed from their property. The guidelines are in place to help residents understand the process, allow for hazardous trees to be removed while minimally disturbing wildlife, and to request new trees or shrubs be planted when applicable.

If you have any questions on the Tree Policy or if your property needs permission from the Conservation Commission for tree removal, please contact the Conservation Agent, Heather Hampson, by emailing concom@ayer.ma.us or calling 978-772-8220 x:143

Stormwater Utility Advisory Workgroup

Ayer, like other municipalities across the country, confronts the need to repair or replace aging infrastructure essential to our daily lives. Among these are multiple culverts - structures that safely direct water under roads and/or sidewalks - that need immediate attention. According to Mass.gov's Resilient Mass projections¹ our state can expect an additional 1-6 inches of annual rainfall by 2050, dramatically increasing the possibility of catastrophic damage and expensive repairs.

To meet the need for responsible action and conform to more stringent EPA and state regulations, the Town's Department of Public Works, under the leadership of Director Dan Van Schalwyk, has formed a Stormwater Utility Advisory Workgroup to review action plans and potential funding structures for Ayer. The Goal: To present a practical, equitable plan for a Stormwater Utility Fund at Fall Town Meeting in October.

Your input is not only welcomed but encouraged! Please see resilient.mass.gov/changes/changes-in-precipitation for more information on the impacts of changing precipitation, and check out the Department of Public Work's webpage at www.ayer.ma.us for more information on the Stormwater Utility Advisory Workgroup.

Springtime Outdoor Walking & Cycling Destinations in Ayer

By Alan S. Manoian, Dir. AOCED

The Historic Hill District Neighborhood: Planned and laid-out between 1858-1870, this is one of Ayer's most architecturally distinctive, walkable, bikeable, and fascinating historic residential neighborhoods - located in the heart of your township. As you stroll, pause and observe the noteworthy types of architectural styles of the grand homesteads that line Washington Street and many side streets including, Greek Revival, Italianate, Gothic Revival, Queen Anne, Gothic Stick, Dutch Colonial, Colonial Revival, Craftsman, Moderne, and conventional. And of course, it's the concentration of traditional homestead "front porches" that create the special experience of encountering, conversing, visiting and connecting between the front porch and the sidewalk with the neighbors of Ayer's Historic Hill District Neighborhood. The Historic Hill District Neighborhood also is the home to some of Ayer's impressive, precious, and massive "old growth" neighborhood trees – walk, explore and you will encounter the massive old growth Beech Trees at 53 & 37 Washington St., the American Sycamore at 60 Washington St., the Conifer at 29 Washington St., and the great Oak at 95 Washington St.

The Oxbow National Wildlife Refuge/The Nashua Riverfront: It comes as a surprise to some folks from Ayer and beyond, that here you can visit, experience, and enjoy a genuine National Wildlife Refuge just a short walk, bicycle-ride, and/or canoe/kayak trip away. View a map of Ayer and you will see that the majestic and gently-northward flowing Nashua River makes up the entire western boundary of the Town of Ayer. Yes, the Town of Ayer is a riverfront community! The great Oxbow National Wildlife Refuge offers five-miles of hiking trails along the riverfront, where you can observe, hear and explore the natural habitat of countless migratory birds, waterfowl, mammals, native pollinators, reptiles, and don't forget the great fishing. The US Fish & Wildlife Service manage the National Wildlife Refuge. Access the Oxbow National Wildlife Refuge by parking at "The Triangle Pollinator Garden" on MacPherson Rd. in Ayer and/or the Bill Ashe Visitor Facility & Canoe Launch at 80 Hospital Rd. in Devens. The Nashua River was designated as a National Wild & Scenic River in 2021. This wonderful natural refuge was created and is maintained to ensure the survival of native wildlife species – right here in your Town of Ayer. Experience the "refuge" with your family, friends, visitors and neighbors this Spring!

The Pine Meadow Pond Conservation Trails: Hiking the unspoiled 125-acre New England woodland terrain, topography, geology, hydrology, wildlife habitat, flora, fauna, and natural serenity of Ayer's Pine Meadow Pond Conservation Trails is sure to be one of your most healthful, invigorating and memorable springtime local experiences. Located at the geographic center of Ayer, the majestic and expansive woodland of comfortably hilly terrain and ancient glacial granite outcroppings framed by the calming backdrop of Pine Meadow Pond (Upper Flannagan's Pond) provides Ayer residents and visitors with a world-class eco-tourism experience and Springtime natural escape right in the heart of your busy little township. The Pine Meadow Conservation Trails are publicly accessed at Groton-Harvard Rd. and Oak Ridge Drive. Bring the kids, bring the dog, bring the grandparents, bring your friends – and immerse yourself in the beauty and tranquility of the natural world in Ayer. Ayer's Pine Meadow Pond Conservation Trails are good for your mind and body, especially in the Spring!

The Historic Woodlawn Cemetery Monumental Architecture Walk: Ayer's Historic Woodlawn Cemetery on Harvard Rd. was established in 1868, although there are believed to be older burials at the sacred site. The Cemetery existed before Ayer was chartered as a township in 1871, and at a time when the location of the Cemetery was the ancient Colonial center of the village of South Groton. The Colonial village center later known as "Old Common" was completely obliterated with the construction of the "Rotary" (the Fredrick Carlton Circle) in 1941 by US Army - however, the ancient and fascinating Cemetery survived the coming of the Rotary. Woodlawn Cemetery makes for a unique and meaningful Springtime walking/bicycling exploration and visitation. Here you will discover an impressive assembly of noteworthy memorial stone architectural types and artfulness. This is the "architecture of the afterlife" – showing many examples of masterful granite and marble stone symbolic carving including, a finger pointed towards Heaven, the oak leaf (long life), the lamb (loss of a child), the weeping willow (sorrow), the broken column (young life cut short), and many more. Make a point of locating the "broken Roman column" monument of Capt. Leander King who made the supreme sacrifice at the Battle of Gettysburg in 1863. Enjoy your time visiting so many of the old Ayer families and family members that eternally rest here together – it is not a somber experience, but joyful to visit those who have come before us. At the rear-center portion Woodlawn Cemetery you will discover rows of uniform white grave memorials dating from the WWI – this is the fascinating and powerful National Cemetery Administration Soldier's Lot; take some time to explore this special Ayer heritage destination place this Spring.

Don't forget your MassHealth Redetermination!

Due to the federal government ending the COVID-era continuous coverage requirements on April 1, 2023, MassHealth has returned to their regular renewal processes.

Up until April 2023, due to the federal public health emergency, federal rules allowed people to keep their MassHealth coverage even if their circumstances changed. On April 1, 2023, MassHealth began redetermining eligibility for all 2.4 million enrollees. These redeterminations will continue through April 2024. Moving forward, as was the case before the public health emergency, MassHealth will require renewals on an annual basis.

Massachusetts law requires everyone to have health insurance, and the Commonwealth continues to lead the nation with more than 97% of residents covered.

Be on the lookout for your renewal forms (many in a blue envelope) in the mail at any time during this one-year period. For more information visit mass.gov/masshealthrenew.
